2007 MALAYSIAN GALA CELEBRATES MALAYSIA'S 50TH YEAR OF INDEPENDENCE

It was a non-stop array of color, sounds, sights and tastes at the third annual Malaysian Gala held in Atlanta, Georgia. More than 360 guests attended the August 11th sold-out event organized by the 2+ year old Malaysian Association of Georgia, held this year at the Sheraton Hotel Atlanta. Attending as Guest of Honor was Malaysian Ambassador to the U.S., Her Excellency Ambassador Datuk Dr. Rajmah Hussain. Organizers flew in a TV celebrity chef from Malaysia, Chef Zamzani Abdul Wahab (better known as "Chef Zam"), to prepare a signature dish for the event and to speak at the event. CNN Headline News anchor Richard Lui was the co-emcee for the event. Another special guest appearance was by the youngest Malaysian to climb Mt. Everest, Muhamad Muqarabbin Mokhtarrudin, who is currently cycling around the world, carrying a message of world peace from Malaysia.
